TENNIS RULES, REGULATIONS & RATES

Weekend players will have to give up one hour each on a Saturday and Sunday in late August for the Annual OB Tennis Invitational Tournament, which started in 2004 with great success.

- Rates: All rates quoted are per court, whether two (2) or four (4) players.
- Season: The season is a calendar year, when courts are opened in the Spring and closed in The Winter (April through November of each year, exact dates varying).
- Times: Court open from 8AM – 10PM.
- Resident & Non-Resident Players: Foursome: At least three (3) residents
Twosome: One (1) resident
- Classification of Permits: Season Permits – full season
Monthly Permits – half the rate of full season – available only if no seasonal permit is issued for that day and time.
Hourly Court Time: assigned on a first come, first served basis
- Seasonal Permit Players: When such a permit is issued to a foursome, at least one member of the registered group must play. Others may be invited to fill in a foursome.
- Rates:
